Brand Overview

LOA is a vibrant, open-air restaurant and lounge inspired by the warmth, colour, and energy of Latin America. Recognised by the Michelin Guide, it blends premium food, innovative mixology, and a laid-back yet refined atmosphere.

Designed for both daytime gatherings and sunset-to-night experiences, LOA offers a seamless balance of flavour, energy, and elegance, making it an ideal setting for private events, corporate functions, and special occasions.

Executive Head Chef

Chef Martin Lirkov leads the culinary vision across Lifestyle Group's portfolio, including Aki, Loa, Tora, Manta, and Amami. Known for his versatility and refined approach, he works across multiple cuisines and dining styles, shaping menus that reflect the distinct character of each concept.

For events and special occasions, Chef Martin and his team curate bespoke menus that showcase vibrant flavours, premium ingredients, and signature dishes from across the group, bringing creativity, energy, and a sense of occasion to every experience.

Restaurant

LOA's culinary offering brings together bold Latin American flavours with contemporary techniques and premium ingredients. From fresh crudos and ceviches to fire-led dishes and signature sharing plates, every element is designed to create a dynamic and social dining experience.

Bar & Cocktails

Signature cocktails crafted for the LOA atmosphere.

The bar at LOA plays a central role in the overall experience. Inspired by Latin American ingredients and culture, the cocktail programme blends creativity with precision, offering both classic interpretations and signature creations.

From welcome drinks to full open-bar experiences, beverage offerings can be fully tailored to suit the tone and style of each event.
